Bus Stop Bible Studies on the John Moore Show on CFRB

John Moore interviewed Lorna Dueck following her column appearing in the Globe and Mail. After the interview John invited caller responses on the subject of should we be allowed to post our material on public transit.

The public feedback, including John Moore's, was surprisingly positive. There was only one caller offering a negative comment.

To quote John, "It certainly seems like the popular support is there and you're just being blocked by pointy headed city clerks."

John Moore is host of The John Moore Show Weekdays 4-7PM
